Radim Passer

Founder & CEO, PASSERINVEST GROUP, a.s.

Radim Passer was born in 1963. In 1991, he went into business and set up PASSERINVEST GROUP, which has ranked among the most recognised development companies on the Czech market ever since. As an investor and developer, the company is primarily associated with Brumlovka in Prague 4, the unique and extensive urban project in the Europe.

PASSERINVEST GROUP, led by Radim Passer, has built up its reputation thanks to its correct and fair behaviour, client orientation and constant effort to work to top quality standards. Radim Passer is grateful to God for his success in business, having embraced Him after his first-born son died in 1998. This decision, in his opinion the best in his life, has dramatically changed his private life as well as his entire view of life's priorities. He is behind a number of missionary and charity projects, along with founding Maranatha Civic Association. Radim Passer is married and has seven sons – Radim (*2001), Samuel (*2013), Benjamin (*2015), Timotheus (*2018), Matteo (*2020), Elias (*2022), Theodor (*2025).
